PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION IN TERMS OF THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION (POPI) ACT 4 OF 2013

1. INTRODUCTION

DCS Block Alpha (Pty) Ltd, herein referred to as “DCS” is a company operating a SaaS cloud platform. POPI requires DCS to inform their clients as to the manner in which their personal information is used, disclosed and destroyed.

DCS guarantees its commitment to protecting its client’s privacy and ensuring that their personal information is used appropriately, transparently, securely and in accordance with applicable laws.

This policy sets out the manner in which DCS deals with their client’s personal information and stipulates the purpose for which said information is used. The Policy is made available on the DCS company website www.dailycryptosignal.com and by request from the company’s information officer.

This policy is drafted in conjunction with the Financial Intermediary Association’s (“FIA”) Protection of Personal Information Notice.

2. PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED

Section 9 of POPI states that “Personal Information may only be processed if, given the purpose for which it is processed, it is adequate, relevant and not excessive.”

DCS collects and processes client’s personal information pertaining to the client’s financial needs. A client may be a retirement fund, its management and trustee board, an individual, and an employer. For purposes of this Policy, clients include potential and existing clients.

The type of information will depend on the need for which it is collected and will be processed for that purpose only. Whenever possible, DCS will inform the client as to the information required and the information deemed optional. Examples of personal information we collect include, but are not limited to:

- The Client’s Identity number, name, surname, postal and physical address, postal code.
- Details for Client’s subscription to the services provided by DCS, inclusive of business address and contact and banking details etc.
- Any other information required by DCS, its service providers and associates, in order to provide clients with the best possible service.

DCS does not collect or processes the client’s personal information for marketing purposes.

DCS aims to have agreements in place with all product suppliers, and third party service providers to ensure a mutual understanding with regard to the protection of the client’s personal information. DCS’s service providers and associates will be subject to the same regulations as applicable to DCS.

3. THE USAGE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Client's Personal Information will only be used for the purpose for which it was collected and as agreed. This may include:

- Providing products or services to clients and to carry out the transactions requested;
- Collating and processing orders for the services provided by DCS;
- Confirming, verifying and updating client details;
- For the detection and prevention of fraud, crime, money laundering or other malpractices;
- For audit and record keeping purposes;
- Providing communication in respect of DCS, the crypto trading and investing industry and other regulatory matters that may affect clients; and
- In connection with and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or when it is otherwise allowed bylaw.

According to section 10 of POPI, personal information may only be processed if certain conditions, listed below, are met along with supporting information for DCS 's processing of Personal Information:

- a. The client's consents to the processing: - consent is obtained from clients during the introductory, appointment and needs analysis stage of the relationship;
- b. The necessity of processing: in order to conduct an accurate analysis of the client's needs.
- c. Processing complies with an obligation imposed by law or a contractual obligation on DCS;
- d. Processing protects a legitimate interest of the client - it is in the client's best interest to have full and proper needs analysis performed in order to provide them with an applicable and beneficial product or service.
- e. Processing is necessary for pursuing the legitimate interests of DCS.

4. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

DCS shall not disclose a client's personal information to any product or third party service provider's where no agreements are in place to ensure that compliance with confidentiality and privacy conditions.

DCS may disclose a client's information where it has a duty or a right to disclose in terms of applicable legislation, the law, or where it may be deemed necessary in order to protect its rights.

5. SAFEGUARDING CLIENT INFORMATION

- g) Consent to process client information is obtained from clients (or a person who has been given authorization from the client to provide the client's personal information) during the introductory, appointment and needs analysis stage of the relationship.

6. ACCESS AND CORRECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Clients have the right to access the personal information DCS holds about them. Clients also have the right to ask DCS to update, correct or delete their personal information on reasonable grounds. Once a client objects to the processing of their personal information, DCS may no longer process said personal information. DCS will take all reasonable steps to confirm its clients' identity before providing details of their personal information or making changes to their personal information.

7. AMENDMENTS TO THIS POLICY

Amendments to, or a review of this Policy, will take place on an ad hoc basis or at least once a year. Clients are advised to access DCS's website periodically to keep abreast of any changes. Where material changes take place, clients will be notified directly or changes will be stipulated on DCS's website.

8. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

This manual is made available in terms of Regulation Number R. 187 of 15 February 2002. The manual is available at the offices of the South African Human Rights Commission and shall be published in three of the official languages in the Government Gazette.

9. INFORMATION AS MAY BE PRESCRIBED UNDER SECTION 51(1)(F)

The Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development of the Republic of South Africa has not made any regulations in this regard.

10. RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND

If DCS searches for a record and it is believed that the record either does not exist or cannot be found, the requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This will include the steps that were taken the attempt to locate the record.

11. THE PRESCRIBED FORMS AND FEES

The prescribed forms and fees are prescribed in terms of Part III of Annexure A of Government Gazette Notice number 187, Regulation 11, which is available on the website of the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development at www.doj.gov.za.

12. ACCESS TO DOCUMENTS

All Company and client information must be dealt with in the strictest confidence and may only be disclosed, without fear of redress, in the following circumstances:

- where disclosure is under compulsion of law;
- where there is a duty to the public to disclose;
- where the interests of the Company require disclosure; and
- where disclosure is made with the express or implied consent of the client.

Disclosure to 3rd parties:

All employees have a duty of confidentiality in relation to the Company and clients. In addition to the provisions above, the following are also applicable:

- Information on clients: Our clients' right to confidentiality is protected in the Constitution and in terms of the Electronic Communications and Transaction Act, 25 of 2002. Information may be given to a 3rd party if the client has consented in writing to that person receiving the information.

Requests for company information:

- These are dealt with in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 (PAIA), which gives effect to the constitutional right of access to information held by the State or any person (natural and juristic) that is required for the exercise or protection of rights. Private bodies, like the Company, must however refuse access to records if disclosure would constitute an action for breach of the duty of secrecy owed to a third party.
- In terms hereof, requests must be made in writing on the prescribed form to the Information Officer in terms of PAIA. The requesting party has to state the reason for wanting the information and has to pay a prescribed fee.

- The Company's manual in terms of PAIA, which contains the prescribed forms and details of prescribed fees, is available on the DCS website www.dailycryptosignal.com
- Confidential company and/or business information may not be disclosed to third parties as this could constitute industrial espionage. The affairs of the Company must be kept strictly confidential at all times.
- The Company views any contravention of this policy very seriously and employees who are guilty of contravening the policy will be subject to disciplinary procedures, which may lead to the dismissal of any guilty party.
